PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Specifications and product characteristics:

- Professional vacuum machine Webomatic C 50-W is designed for vacuum packaging and hermetic sealing of food products in butcher shops, restaurants, processing plants, supermarkets and professional kitchens. This model is an ideal solution for users who require high working capacity, reliable performance and extended product shelf life in daily professional use.
- The vacuum system removes air from the packaging, preserving freshness, quality, aroma and product structure. The machine is suitable for packaging meat, cured meat products, cheese, fish, ready meals and many other food items.
- Model C 50-W is equipped with a powerful Busch vacuum pump with 100 m3/h capacity, ensuring fast and efficient operation even with larger packaging volumes. The chamber size of 700 x 460 mm provides enough space for different product types and package sizes.
- Sealing bars sized 1 x 450 mm and 1 x 695 mm allow flexible packaging of different bag sizes and products. Stainless steel construction ensures long service life, high hygiene standards and easy maintenance. Stable industrial design makes this model an excellent choice for professional use.
