PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Specifications and product characteristics:

- Ekomex Vacuum Tumbler is a professional vacuum tumbler designed for marinating, curing, and massaging meat products. The vacuum process ensures even marinade absorption, improves product texture, and enhances the overall quality of the finished product.
- The 800-liter drum capacity makes it suitable for medium and large-scale production facilities. Adjustable drum speed allows the process to be adapted to different raw materials and production requirements.
- Manufactured from stainless steel, the machine is designed for reliable operation in meat and food processing environments.
